

Short Curriculum vitae

Mrs Maria Pergamali is a medical laboratory technician at the General Hospital of Arta. She graduated from the Department of Medical Laboratories of the Technological Educational Institute of Athens in 2006. She has a MSc in assisted reproduction and regenerative medicine from the Medical School of the University of Athens. Her work experience includes an internship at the General Hospital of Athens (G. Gennimatas), the Attica General Hospital KAT and the Doping Control Laboratory of the Olympic Athletic Center of Athens. She worked for two years at the quality control and diagnostic analysis laboratory of Labogen S.A. and for six years at the veterinary analysis laboratory of the Horse Racing Organization of Greece S.A. She also is an EOPPEP (National Organisation for the Certification of Qualifications and Vocational Guidance) verified adult education trainer and has worked for many years as a teacher in many professional high schools (more than 1000 teaching hours). She is the author of an international publication in peer reviewed journals. She has also participated in six National Conferences and five Scientific Seminars.